JUDGE BALLEET IS IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Judge S. F. Balliet, who last summer suffered a stroke of paralysis while on a visit to his sons, Letson and J. E. Balliet, was reported last evening to be in a critical condition, and the physicians in attendance state that it is doubtful if he survives another twenty-four hours. Mr. Balliet is 72 years of age, and while naturally a person with a strong constitution, he has become weakened by the long illness.

ANOTHER ELK FOR THE SPARKS RANCH

The Reno Gazette of Wednesday says: The arrival of an Elk on one of the morning trains from the coast attracted a large number of people at the depot this morning. It was crated and consigned to the Sparks ranch south of town.

Inquiry developed the fact that George Wingfield, who purchased the three formerly belonging to the late governor, is making an exchange of a female for a male Elk with San Francisco parties, and this was the male animal that arrived today. It was hauled in a day to the Sparks ranch, accompanied by a party of well known residents in an automobile.

WORKING CROPPINGS.

The great strike made by Joe Dietrick on the side of Mount Davidson, on ground belonging to the Best and Belcher company has had the result of creating a renewed interest in the ground lying west of the Comstock lode. Numerous prospectors are industriously engaged in digging up the rich surface from Cedar Hill to the Curry croppings, while every piece of ground which has not been patented, has been staked. The Baker claim is in line with the Dietrick strike and local experts claim that development is only a continuation of a great gold ledge cutting across the Comstock for an indefinite length and bringing riches to anyone who can find where it comes to the surface.—Virginia Enterprise.

RENO MERCHANTS

ALSO ORGANIZE

Reno business men, as well as those of Virginia, realize the advantages to be gained by a Merchants' Protective association, and a meeting has been called to establish a permanent organization. The object is the betterment and advancement of Reno's business interests, which is along the same lines as the association in this city. The benefits from an association of this character are now generally realized, and nearly every town of size in the country supports one.—Virginia Chronicle.

TIED A DOUBLE KNOT.

The wedding bells jingled merrily Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Monahan, when a double wedding knot was tied by Rev. Father Murphy of St. Mary's church. The contracting parties were Otto Tanahill and Miss Katie Monahan, and E. K. Egner and Miss Irene Gilrooney, both couples alternating as attendants and witnesses of the ceremonies. The affair was a quiet one, only the family members being present. Both couples are well known throughout the city and have the congratulations of their many friends.—Virginia Chronicle.

RUM FOE DRINKS; A WEEPING BRIDE!

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, April 23.—With in less than twenty-four hours after his marriage to a Los Angeles girl, Thomas Hughes, a temperance worker, who has been engaged in anti-saloon and morality crusades in Cincinnati, Chicago and Oakland, disappeared and his bride appealed to the police today to find him. His bride said he vanished after taking one glass of beer.

Hughes married Miss Cora Beck immediately after testifying Saturday at the trial of a hotel proprietor whose arrest he had procured the day before. Returning home that evening from the hotel where he had registered to secure evidence, Hughes brought with him a bottle of beer, according to the story Mrs. Hughes told the police. He took one drink, and fell to the floor in spasms. Mrs. Hughes hurried out for a physician but found on her return that her husband had disappeared, and she has not seen him since.

Why Send Out of Town for Your Printing

When you can have first-class work done right here, by first-class union printers.

The business man who sends out of town for his printing injures his own business as well as that of others. While on the other hand the man who patronizes home institutions increases the town's pay roll, and thereby builds up his business.

The printers and book binders in the cities of surrounding states do not come here to spend their money.
